What's Left After 2000 Years?

Two thousand years ago, a little old man sat in a cold prison cell, writing on a piece of parchment. The government which imprisoned him was one of the most powerful the world has ever known. It ruled from India to Spain and from the Sahara desert to distant Britain. The prison house was made of stone and built to last forever. One day the dungeon was opened, and the apostle Paul was taken up and led out the Appian Way a short distance from Rome where his head was severed from his body. His spirit, released from this prison house of the flesh, went home to be with the Lord whom he loved and served. That government has already passed into history. That prison house has crumbled back to dust. The name of the executioner is forgotten. The body of Paul has long since returned to dust. But the words Paul wrote on that parchment have been alive through almost two millennia. They have brought comfort, hope, and inspiration to untold millions of earth's inhabitants. – George Dehoff
"Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." Matthew 25:35 (Borrowed from C. Hardison)

...THE SECRET TO HIS SUCCESS IS THE SECRECHY OF HIS MOVES.

On the wings of prayer, our burdens take flight,
 And our load of care becomes bearably light,
 And our heavy hearts, are lifted above,
 To be healed by the balm, of God's wonderful love.
